CHURCH NOTICES.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH (EPISCOPAL)
Services in this church at 11 o'clock in the morning and 7:30 o'clock in the evening. Sunday school immediately after morning service.
H. L. FORT, Rector.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—Rev. Josiah McClain, Pastor.—Services in the Presbyterian Church at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Sabbath School at 12:15 P. M. All are cordially invited.

M. E. CHURCH.—Rev. J. D. Hammond, Pastor. Services to-day at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. Sabbath School at 2 P. M. Seats free. Subjects of discourse: Morning, "Disposition;" evening, "Dead Files."

ST. PATRICK'S DAY was lovely, morally, physically, anniversary and meteorologically. It was as fine, in all respects, as the Fourth of July, Christmas or the Queen's Birthday. If our friends from the Gem of the Sea took to themselves any special enjoyments they did it with great quietude. The beautiful green banner of Erin, emblazoned with its Golden Harp, floated modestly from Jim Hunt's flagstaff. If our vision served us, the Union pennant floated loyally atop. We have no doubt that the dance at the Arlington last night was a fine affair.

A TIMELY PROPOSITION.—Messrs. Mackay and Fair, through their attorney Hon. C. J. Hillyer, have offered to loan to Storey county, without security or interest, enough money to carry on the public schools. There seem to be some doubts as to the propriety of receiving this loan, and the proposition has been taken under advisement. It seems to us that the offer is a liberal and timely one. It will doubtless be accepted. We cannot see how the county can impair its status in the tax rolls by taking the proffered money.

THE RAILROAD BALL.—We are indebted to the management for a complimentary ticket of admission to the fourth annual ball to be given by the employees of the V. & T. Railroad Company at the Arlington House on next Thursday evening. Tickets (including supper) are 50c each. These can be obtained of the members of the Invitation Committee and of Mr. Niles, at the depot.

SEPARATE SCHOOL BUILDINGS.—There seems to be a growing preference for the proposition to build a school-house at either end of the city rather than put an addition to the present building.

The McFarmanan Wagon Road.

Time was when the efforts of the press devoted our humble efforts to be half of the Columbus Wagon Road. (We did stick to it a trifle pertinaciously, sure enough.) Perhaps a vain and unacknowledged world will treat our zeal in promoting John McFarmanan's Belleville Toll Road project with a corresponding degree of derision. We are prepared to abide by these inflictions of the scornful, for we have faith in Mac, and are very sure he is going to make a success of his undertaking. He has the courage, the energy and the credit. Now for what he is doing and what he has done: He has already completed his road to West Walker River, 1 mile below Hudson's crossing. This is about 8 miles east of Wellington's station, which is well known to be 50 miles from Carson City. By the Wellington road Hudson's is 53 miles from Carson. McFarmanan says that by his road the distance is not more than 41 miles. This is a saving of 12 miles. Our indefatigable friend has a movable camp. His kitchen and all his lodging houses are on wheels. He has sleeping arrangements for 78 men—his present force. He can, and frequently does, move camp with a quarter of an hour's preparation. He makes his own road and moves his own town. His force, so far, have not received a dollar. They know their man, have faith in him, and are willing to take their chances of being paid six months after the road is completed. He hopes the people of Carson will come to his help, by and by. He will run a branch to Mason's Valley as soon as the people there offer to assist him. He says he can strike the heart of the valley in 36 miles from Carson. He says he will have the road completed to Belleville in 40 days, God willing. This will connect this place and that important mining camp in 125 miles. The road is amply supplied with good water at points within 9 miles distance of each other. He will put up good, substantial bridges over both branches of the Walker. All the heavy sand encountered is within three miles of the Carson river. The course of this road is almost due South East. The materials for his bridges—which will be constructed of Oregon pine—are shipped to where they are to be used. He invites a committee of our citizens to make an inspection of the work done. Will feed any such committee as will pay his camp a visit. The most difficult part of the road is done. It is evident that this one man's energy and pluck will, if it meets with no fatal obstructions, solve the problem of a direct line of communication between Carson and the rich mining districts of Esmeralda County.

CAPTAIN WHITFORD'S LECTURE THIS AFTERNOON.—Captain W. K. Wear asked us, the other day, to make the announcement that he would deliver his lecture on the "Golden Dawn" in the District Court-room, to-day, at 3 o'clock P. M. Yesterday he came into the Appeal office to remind us to make mention of the proposed lecture. It will, he desires us to say, take place at the time and place specified. It will be free to all; and to all who hear it it will be a very pleasant treat. But there must be some mistake about the announcement which appeared in last evening's Gold Hill News and which engages the Captain to lecture at the District Court-room in Virginia City this afternoon. Evidently the News made a mistake.

ANDY WHITFORD.—His many friends will be glad to be informed as follows, of the improvement in Andy Whitford's condition. Says the Carson Valley News of yesterday: The friends of Andy Whitford have been greatly alarmed lately by his being suddenly taken to bed seriously ill. For a time the worst apprehensions were felt concerning him, but from a condition of complete prostration our friend has so far rallied as to be able to sit up, and it looks now like we would soon again encounter Andy's familiar face upon the streets.

BETTER.—Dahl, whose injuries were at first pronounced fatal, is now so much better than was expected, that his medical attendants have strong hopes for him.

THE CHICO HORROR.

Five Chinese Put to Death by White Bullman!

Of the atrocious murder of five inoffensive Chinese near Chico, on Wednesday night, we have the following particulars:

The six Chinamen were all in the cabin in the evening, some laying down, while the others were sitting around a lighted candle which was on a small table, and it is thought that this aided the murderers in their work of assassination. On arriving on the ground we went to the cabin, where the ghastly sight which presented itself to our gaze was most appalling. On the ground at the entrance there lay a stalwart Chinaman on his face, with a bullet hole in his head, and blood and brains formed a pool around him. The second lay about a foot from him, nearly in the same condition, while the third lay partially over the second, also wounded in the head. The fourth was lying in an opposite direction to the other three, with his face partially upon the matting or bed, with a terrible wound in his face, which showed the murderer had been close to him. He was alive, but unconscious, when we saw him, but died while the inquest was being held. The fifth was wounded in the breast, but escaped to the other side of the slough, where we found him in a dying condition; he was brought to town, but there is little chance of his recovery. The sixth Chinaman has a flesh wound in the arm. He says that when they aimed at him he threw up his left arm and fell back, lying perfectly still. The murderers thinking they had completed their work of slaughter, poured kerosene over the place and applied a match, hoping to obliterate their deed. After setting fire they hastily made their escape, but the wounded man, who had laid perfectly still, rose after their departure and put the flames out. He made his way to town, but nothing was done till this morning. It appears that the assassins were six in number, and as the Chinaman described them, there were five Mexican men and one boy or little man. They came right to the cabin door, and without any warning, blazed away, each one of them picking out his victim, which could be easily done, as the candle on the inside showed their position. There is no clue to the perpetrators of this terrible outrage, and the verdict of the Coroner's jury is that the Chinamen came to their death by pistol-shot wounds inflicted by six white men to the jury unknown. No active steps have been taken to ferret out the crimes which have been committed in and around Chico during the past three weeks, and murder and bloodshed, incendiarism and rapine are allowed to run rampant. Since the Order of Caucasians started in Chico all of these depredations have taken place.

TELEGRAPHIC.

New York, March 17.—A World special from Scranton says serious trouble is apprehended with striking miners. There is much excitement in town. A delegation waited on the Mayor this evening, and their leader addressed him as follows: "We represent the starving workmen of Scranton. I have a family of eight children, who have lived on bread and water for two weeks. Now we have water, but Lord only knows where bread is coming from. We come to demand bread, and unless we have it within forty-eight hours, shall take it by fair means if possible, but by foul means if necessary." The situation is certainly critical, notwithstanding reports to the contrary circulated by merchants and others, who fear that their credit will be affected.

New York, March 17.—The weather is very disagreeable and unfavorable for St. Patrick's parade. About two inches of snow are on the ground and now, 3 A. M., it is raining, with no prospect of abatement.

The Times denounces the appointment of General McClellan as State Superintendent of Public Works and hopes the Senate will not confirm it, as the taint of jobbery and the record of disgraceful inefficiency cling to his name.

The Tribune favors McClellan's appointment, and praises the Governor for making so good a one.

The World says: "For some time the officials in the Sheriff's office have known where Sharkey, the murderer is, and intimates that if a reward was offered no doubt he would be forthcoming."

Chicago, March 16.—A Washington special to the Inter-Ocean says: It is stated positively that the President will on Monday next issue an order withdrawing the military from South Carolina and Louisiana. He will not directly legalize either government, but will allow that one to fall to whom the people will not give allegiance or pay taxes.

New York, March 16.—The Times Washington special says dispatches state that the President will withdraw the troops from the Southern States next week. Referring editorially thereto the Times says it hopes that better counsel will prevail, but if the President persists he and the Times part company.

New York, March 17.—The Tribune's Washington says, among the unsuccessful candidates for the United States Marshalship for the Northern District of Illinois, was Amer Stillwell. He was admitted to a private audience with the President, and presented his papers. The President carefully looked through them all, and then, looking Stillwell in the face, said: "Your papers are all unexceptionable. There is nothing in your record which does not seem to show that you are fully qualified for the position, but there is one insuperable objection to your appointment to any Federal office; that is, your wife is a favorite cousin of Mrs. Hayes." Stillwell left the Presidential office convinced that the fact which many thought would insure his appointment had rendered his defeat inevitable.

New York, March 17.—When the new passenger rates to New York from the West were announced by the Passenger Agents, who met in St. Louis, the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern railroad refused to accept the advance, and continued to sell tickets at the old rates, $18. This action was understood to be in furtherance of the Vanderbilt policy in the New York Central competition. It was expected that the Lake Shore would soon agree to the advance; but that not having been done, the other roads will undoubtedly return to the old figure in a few days.

Chicago, March 17.—St. Patrick's day dawned bright and cheerful, and though the ground was covered with heavy snow, processions formed in various parts of the city at an early hour, and after church services had been held, paraded the streets to the number of about 5,000. Among the notable features of the procession were the Second Regiment, various Catholic temperance societies and other civil organizations.

Indianapolis, March 17.—A boiler explosion in Hunter's saw mill, five miles east of Worthington, Indiana, yesterday afternoon, killed twelve persons and injured seven—all that were in the building. The names of the killed are: A. Vanderveer, James Hunter, John Urdick, John Spauld, a son of G. W. Bender, a son of George W. Bender, a son of William Hunter, a son of Henry Barker, two sons of David Hunter and a son of Jacob Barker. The wounded are: John Barker, Alfred Hunter, A. Haeb, a son of George W. Bender, William Bender, a son of George Hunter and an unknown man.

New York, March 17.—A World's editorial says: Hayes has no more constitutional right or authority to keep troops in the State-house of a sovereign State when the Governor of that State requested him to withdraw them, than he has without the request of the Governor of that State to send troops there. He is openly and flagrantly breaking the laws which he has sworn to support. He has led the country to regard him as a statesman, not as a party politician, and his present conduct is not only stamping him irretrievably as a pattering juggler with fair words, but bringing him into imminent danger of proving himself the defender of riot, bloodshed and revolution.
